Dear Mr. Kavallis:

Re: Kavallis, George et al. v. WorkSafeBC et al.
Supreme Court of British Columbia (New Westminster Registry. 240162)

I confirm the Attorney General of British Columbia (“AGBC”) received a Notice of Civil Claim, filed August 25, 2021, respecting the above-captioned matter.

Please note, the document has not been properly served on the Province. Specifically, providing the Notice of Civil Claim by regular mail does not comply with section 8 of the Crown Proceeding Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c.89. Rather, the Notice of Civil Claim may be served in one of the following ways:

- 1) You or another individual bring the documents to the AGBC office in Victoria (address below) and give a copy of your documents to one of the lawyers in our office;
- 2) Hire a process server and ask them to take the step enumerated above; or
- 3) Send a copy of your documents through Canada Post by registered mail to the address below. Details about registered mail are available on the Canada Post website. Please do not send your documents through Canada Post using any other mailing method (e.g. do not use Xpress Post).

The AGBC address for service is:

Ministry of Attorney General
Legal Services Branch
PO Box 9290 STN PROV GOVT
1001 Douglas Street
Victoria, BC V8W 9J7
Attention: Duty Counsel
